Getting The Love You Want

Weekend Workshop for Couples

One weekend that can add a lifetime of delight to your relationship.

Fall in love all over again at the imago weekend workshop for couples. Whether you are in the early days of blissful romance, or on the edge of a break-up, join the tens of thousands of couples who have experienced a wonderful change in their relationship, just from this one weekend experience.

In our most recent evaluations (2006) 97% found the content rich and useful. The average score was 94% for overall experience.

The workshop has been designed to feel safe and supportive, and to give you as much privacy as you want. There will be times to have fun together, and times when you can practice the Imago Dialogue to learn more about why you and your partner are attracted. It will help you to understand what lies beneath some of the conditions that might emerge in your relationship, and how to use these as opportunities to become more connected and to re-ignite your love.
